Sixth Sunday of Easter — May 5, 2024
Gospel Reading: John 15:9–17

Jesus said to his disciples: "As the Father loves me, so I also love you. Remain in my love. If you keep my commandments, you will remain in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commandments and remain in his love. "I have told you this so that my joy may be in you and your joy might be complete. This is my commandment: Love one another as I love you. No one has greater love than this, to lay down one's life for one's friends. You are my friends if you do what I command you. I no longer call you slaves, because a slave does not know what his master is doing. I have called you friends, because I have told you everything I have heard from my Father. It was not you who chose me, but I who chose you and appointed you to go and bear fruit that will remain, so that whatever you ask the Father in my name he may give you. This I command you: Love one another."

CelebrateRecovery
 a ministry of  Sacred Heart Catholic Church

This week we are at a juncture. We have accepted our powerlessness and that only God can help us overcome our hurt, habit, or hang-up. Now comes the difficult part. To move forward in our recovery, we must put our troubled past behind us by acknowledging it and facing it head on. We begin this process by taking an honest MORAL inventory of ourselves. To learn more, come and hang out with “those people” and see why we are so full of joy.

Join us every Tuesday—at 7 p.m. in the Sacred Heart Social Hall.

Experience a safe and welcoming place.
NO mask, NO judgement, Absolute Confidentiality.
